

Present Simple.vs. Present Continuous

Present Simple	Present Continuous
I speak English	I am speaking English
you speak English	you are speaking English
he / she / it speaks English	he / she / it is speaking English
we speak English	we are speaking English
they speak English	they are speaking English

These are many uses for Present Simple and Present Continuous.

These are some of them:

Present Simple	Present Continuous
Things that are always true:	Things that are happening at the moment of speaking:

<ul style="list-style-type: none">Water boils at 100 Celcius degrees.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">The water is boiling now. It is ready for the pasta.
Permanent or true situations <ul style="list-style-type: none">Jack lives in London.	Temporary situations: <ul style="list-style-type: none">Jack is living in Paris this year
Habits or things we do regularly: <ul style="list-style-type: none">I drink coffee every morning.	