

Let's keep practicing question words!

Worksheet:

The following conversation has some mistakes in the use of question words.

Find them and correct them.

- James: Hey Sarah
- Sarah: Hi James
- James: What are you today?
- Sarah: I'm fantastic James and you?
- James: I'm great too. Sarah, when do you live now?
- Sarah: I live in Mexico City now. I'm visiting my family here.
- James: Oh that's awesome. And why do you work?
- Sarah: I work at Google. I'm a software engineer there. And you?
Who do you work?
- James: I work at Platzi.
- Sarah: Ohamazing. When is your office?
- James: I work from home. It's great
- Sarah: Awesome. How old is your house from here?
- James: Not much, like 10 minutes walking. Let's have a coffee there!
- Sarah: Great, let's go!
